William and Aylet Johnson, on whose evidence a jury found Edward Jones guilty, says that Wright and Perkins acted with Jones, and at the Jones trial they gave a detailed and blood-curdling account of the parts each one of the three men was alleged to have taken in the robbery, killing and burning.  Walting on the Defense.  The Circuit Court is engaged in the trial of chancery cases these two intervening days, Tuesday and Wednesday, and when Messra, Lee and Strede	Dickenson	lies kep it regularly in the cause and large the American Trotting berby at the Readville track from Axtalor. It was one of the most spectacular races ever seen on the turf. From the time the word was given until the horses were within fifteen yards of the wire the winner was in doubt.  There was a long delay at the post, which might have been expected from the large field of horses, thirty-eight electing to take a chance in capturing the rich prize. At the start Hylle Bird, entered from the limit mark allowance, 495 feet in advance of the scratch horses, Sonoma. Girl and San Francisco set out to make a whirlwind of it.  Speciacular Seene.  Passing the stand the first time, the half-mile mark, Hylle Bird was leading by a length over Axtator, with Jim Ferry third, Kaldar fourth, Remorseful fifth, and then the favorite, Baron Aleyon, just in advance of a horde of horses that packed the track full.  In the back-stretch Hylle Bird weakened enough to permit Axtator to rush into the van a good length in front of Kaldar, who was closely followed by Baron Aleyon. The positions return here on Thursday, it is by no means certain that the trial will be gone into, although counsel for the defense, as well as for the prosecution, express their desire to have the case disposed of at this term of the court.  Dr. Dillard, of Lynchburg, is one of the medical men who has been mentioned as an expert to be brought here to testify, and Dr. Christian, who was a professor at the University of Virginia, is another man mentioned in this connection.  Mr. Lee, of counsel for the defense, offered to take Mr. Hubard, the attorney for the Commonwealth, to Richmond, Baltimore or Lynchburg, and pay all the expense if he (Mr. Hubard) would take with him the piece of frail bone to be examined by a specialist in anatomy.  Court's Ruling Thought Fair. Every one is impressed with the reirnass of the ruling in court by Judge Gordon.  Hon, H. D. Flood was an interested spectator in court, but took no part in the proceedings, and will not be here on Thursday.  The firm of Flood, Moss. Moor and	Middlesex	for the syand battle to the wire. Baron for the grand battle to the wire. Baron Alcyon straightened out for the real race. Gillies was working hard on Axtator, with hopes of lasting long enough to be the victor.  Ernest, driving the Baron, soon had passed Kaldar, and a the long distance post was lapped on extator, which gap decreased fifty yards from the wire to even terms. For a few strides the two leaders raced head and head, and then the superior speed and endurance of Baron Alcyon carried him to the front, and he passed the winning post three lengths to the good.  Axtator was half a length ahead of Kaldar, who was a nose in front of a row of horses that stretched across the track from pole to fence, and required the judges to place them. B. Spencer and Chief Engineer C. S. Wells, of the Southern Railway, whose offices are in Washington, are here to go over the situation at the tunnel in Rivermont with Contractor Elivier and Engineer Ezel, who is in charge of the construction work.  The pipes through which steam has been going into the tunnel since it was closed up the second time, about two weeks ago, were opened to-day, and the general impression was that no simoke came from the interior, though there was a steady flow of partially condensed steam. This bears the odor of pine, a condition caused by the distillation of tar from the timbers of the tunnel.  The officers were convinced that there was no smoke, and the feeling is strong that there is no longer any fire inside.  It was thought when the tunnel was opened two weeks ago that the fire was all out then.	FREDERICA BURG. VA. August-  11. FREDERICA BURG. VA. August- 12. Sand Confederate veteran of 11.
